

1 White Admiral and some of the up to 6 Silver-washed Fritillaries in cut back areas along main path from Keeper's Cottage were on the Bexley side of London/Kent border

2 White Admirals in Gatton's Plantation, one in each of the clearings a short distance either side of the central path 'crossroads'. The whole of the plantation is within Bexley.

1 White Admiral and 1 Silver-washed Fritillary, just off the end of Parsonage Lane, flying over the main ride along which the Bexley/Dartford (London/Kent) border runs, and the cut back strip along the north side of it.